Please help me determine who my real friends are by solving the following puzzles to the best of your ability.

1. Two of my three friends always lie, and the other one always tells the truth. Here are their claims:

FRIEND	CLAIM
Phoebe	I am not your best friend
Monica	I am your best friend
Rachel	Monica is not your best friend

Who is my best friend? Phoebe Monica Rachel

2. It's my birthday and someone stole my cake! Please help me get it back by catching the culprit. There are five suspects, and they each tell exactly one fact and one lie. Here are their testimonies:

SUSPECT	TESTIMONY 1	TESTIMONY 2
Rachel	It was not Chandler	It was Monica
Monica	It was not Joey	It was not Chandler
Phoebe	It was Monica	It was Joey
Joey	It was Chandler	It was not Rachel
Chandler	It was not Rachel	It was Phoebe

Who stole my birthday cake? Rachel Monica Phoebe Joey Chandler

3. I met Monica at a bar last night and she gave me the first three digits of her phone number, 555. She said if I can guess the last four digits, she'll go on a date with me. She gave me this hint:

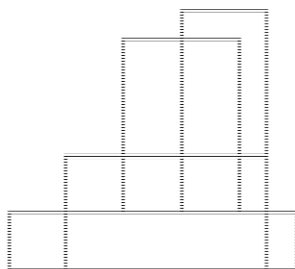

"The first digit is one-third the second, the third is the sum of the first and second, and the last is three times the second."

Please help me get a date! What is Monica's phone number? 555 - _____

4. Rachel is upset and I want to cheer her up. You're good at this kind of stuff so I come to you for advice. I know the type of things she likes, but what she really wants is something unique. Help me decide which of the following is most unlike the others:

Poem Novel Painting Statue Flower

5. Chandler and I have a gentlemen's bet on who can find the most rectangles in the following diagram:

He says there are 9 rectangles, but I can only find 8. A true friend would help me win this bet so I don't look like a fool!

How many rectangles did I miss? _____

★ b. Ross was short on cash so I loaned him some money. He asked me for x dollars and y cents, but I accidentally gave him y dollars and x cents. After he spent $1.00, Ross realized that he had twice the amount he initially asked for.

All in all, how much money does Ross owe me back? $ _____ . _____
